

Pascagoula-Gautier School District

Supt. Wayne
Rodolfich

PGSD E-Newsletter

October 25, 2017

Volume 2, Issue 22

DESTINATION GRADUATION!

One of seven senior maids will be crowned Pascagoula High School's 2017 Homecoming Queen on Friday, Oct. 27, 2017, as the Panthers take on the St. Martin Yellowjackets at War Memorial Stadium. Maids on the homecoming court are, front row, from left, Jinaise Smith, Victoria Nettles, Trinity Barrett, Kristin Dawson, Madison Connely, Madison Scott and Krishunna Walker, senior maids; second row, Sherteres Lofton, Amaya Sumlin, Nykirra Hudson, Markayla Nettles, Taela Tillman, junior maids; Hayley Blalock, Jordan Sherrod, Cecily Johnson, Vanity Fields, sophomore maids; Taylor Williamson, Tiara Parnell and Amani Wilson, freshman maids.

Check Out New Homecoming Parade Route & Community Pep Rally Info

The Pascagoula High homecoming parade is set for 5:30 p.m., Thursday, Oct. 26, 2017. Beach Elementary Principal Shirley Hunter will serve as grand marshal. Line-up will be from 4:30-5:15 p.m. The check-in station will be at the corner of Tucker Avenue and 11th Street. The parade will begin at the PHS gym on Taylor Street, traveling to Polk and then north on Market Street, west on Jackson Avenue, south on Pascagoula Street, continuing to the corner of Dupont and Pascagoula Streets where it will end.

The parade will finish with a community pep rally/block party on Delmas Avenue between Pascagoula Street and Magnolia Street. The party will be from 6:45-9 p.m. The party will feature a pep rally near the fountain next to Paradise Grill, bouncy houses in the empty lot next to Scranton's, free face painting and spirit items.

Merchants and Marine Bank will provide free hot dogs and bottled water.

Beach Elementary Principal Shirley Hunter was surprised by Pascagoula High Principal Anthony Herbert as he proposed, asking Hunter to be grand marshal for the PHS homecoming parade.