DESTINATION GRADUATION!

Pascagoula High to Present Homecoming Court During Pre-Game Ceremonies Friday

One of seven senior maids will be crowned Pascagoula High School's 2018 Homecoming Queen before kickoff at 6:30 pm, Friday, Sept. 21, 2018, as the Panthers take on the Harrison Central Red Rebels at War Memorial Stadium. Maids on the homecoming court are Nylian Crosby, Arriona Houser, Sherteres Lofton, Markayla Nettles, Jasia Sherrod, Nykirra Taylor, Taela Tillman, seniors; Jaleah Davis, Angelique Davison, Amaya Hawkins, Kailynn Norvell, Jordan Westmoreland, juniors; Haley Green, Yaideliz Martinez, Brianna Torres, Amani Wilson, sophomores; and Kedriana McKinney, Gabrielle Stallworth, Allayah Trepagnier, freshmen. The presentation of the homecoming court and crowning of the new queen will culminate a week of activities which include themed days and the homecoming parade set for 5:30 p.m., Thursday, Sept. 20, 2018. Former PHS Panther Coach Bill Matthews will serve as grand marshal. Line-up will begin at 4:30 p.m. and end at 5:15 p.m. The check-in station will be at the corner of Tucker Avenue and 11th Street. The parade will begin at the PHS gym on Taylor Street, traveling to Polk and then north on Market Street, west on Jackson Avenue, south on Pascagoula Street, continuing to the corner of Dupont and Pascagoula Streets where it will end. The parade will finish with a community pep rally/block party on Delmas Avenue between Pascagoula Street and Magnolia Street. Homecoming sponsors are Elizabeth Bonilla and Lauren Carpenter.
